HOBBIES AND INTERESTS

Travelling

I have been to many countries till now, countries from both Asia and Europe. However, I still cannot get enough!

Sports

Although I am not very active, I really enjoy watching and playing many kinds of sports. Especially the ones that involve the ball like volleyball, table tennis, badminton etc. I also really enjoy swimming and running.

Making new friends

I have an ISTJ personality (MBTI), so I am considered to be an introvert that enjoys her solitude. However, one of the things that I love is meeting new people and gathering with family and friends. I like to be in crowded environments, especially at home when we invite guests over.
